Freedom"
By Mary J.

I want to be free
To make a mistake
To be myself
And not be a fake

Sometimes I don't know
Who I am
Why I am here
Maybe life's an exam

Only God knows
why
And who I am to be
Where I am going
And He will love
me.

"Matters of the Heart"
By Lila S.

My mind's made up
At least I think
In fact, it's yup
Or I shall sink.

I know I should
But if I don't
Or if I could,
But then I won't

Really I'm certain
This is for me
Or it will be curtains
That I can see.

I've made up my mind
So stay out of it heart
Or deep in a bind
I soon shall dart

Yes, I love him
But that doesn't matter
His love is dim
And I'm the Mad-hatter

The "Ing" Thing

The leadership is excited to announce that we have a theme for this year!! Our theme is the "Ing" Thing. Every month we will be concentrating on a topic that ends in "ing". For example, in September our "ing" is Refreshing! In October, our "ing" is Transforming, and so on. Be on the look out for these exciting "ings" each month.

A BAD DAY?

Recently I had a bad day. It was horrible. I don't have bad days very often, thankfully. In hindsight, there are some things I learned from it and I would like to share them with you.

- CHILDISH VS CHILDLIKE. There is a big difference in these two. The Lord wants us to have a childlike heart, but not to act childish. That day, I chose badly. (Matthew 18:3; II Corinthians 13:11)
- IT'S OK TO MAKE A MISTAKE. Are there any other perfectionists out there? I hate to make mistakes. It feels like the end of the world. Although everyone else sees my imperfections, (I'm pretty sure they are blatantly obvious to others) I am still learning to accept it in myself. We can be our own worst enemies. (Romans 3:23; I John 1:9)
- DEPRESSION/ISOLATION. I began to see how people can spiral downward very quickly. Suddenly, in my mind, I couldn't do anything right, I was a complete failure and I wanted to quit. I didn't want to be around anybody, and yet I thought it was everybody else's job to care about what was going on with me. Wow, how powerful our thinking is! (Philippians 4:6-8)
- WHAT'S IN YOUR HEART? It was shocking to realize the ugliness that was welling up inside of me. Have you ever become painfully aware of things that are in your heart and you have no idea where they came from? (Psalm 51:10)
- WALK AWAY? I really don't like conflict. It causes this "fight or flight" reaction within me. As singles, it can be easier to just walk away and not face it. I'm learning that God can use those times to teach us, to change us. If we run, more than likely we will have a similar situation occur somewhere else down the road. (Philippians 1:6)
- WHEREVER I GO, THERE I AM. I am learning that no matter what problem I am going through, I am the common denominator in it. (Romans 7:15-8:4)
- GRACE. I found grace in my bad day. Grace from God, grace from my friends, and I'm learning it's OK to give myself some grace. (II Peter 3:18)

How awesome it is to know that we have a God who cares and has answers for us no matter what we are going through. He loves us even when, especially when, we have a bad day. As our retreat theme for this year says, He wants to "Transform Us from the Inside Out"! (II Corinthians 3:18)

Maybe it wasn't such a bad day after all.

SMALL GROUPS COMING SOON!

SNA is excited to be offering several options for small groups this fall. These groups will be lead by people from SNA. Some of the topics will be: "He Loves Me" or "Classic Christianity" offered by Lenny; "Friendship" offered by Jim; "The Crown Financial Course" offered by Mark; and "Five Love Languages of Singles" by Lila. These are book studies and require payment for the book. Other possibilities may include a walking group, a dining out group, "Love and Respect" teaching, and so on. If you are interested in any of these subjects, please let the leader of the group know or Jackie (605) 399-1295. Most of these groups will begin after the Retreat with places to be announced. This is a great opportunity to connect with others.
